DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO MOTIONS FOR CONSOLIDATION

Nine purported ERISA class actions arising out of the same alleged operative facts concerning The Bear Stearns Companies Inc. are pending before this Court. Plaintiffs in six of these cases (Weber, Pisano, Gewirtz, Howard, Greenberg and Lounsbury) have sensibly moved for consolidation of these actions.

Defendants agree that these nine ERISA cases, and any subsequently filed ERISA cases raising similar substantive allegations, should be consolidated. Because all of these cases raise similar allegations under ERISA, consolidation would promote the interests of the parties and the court. Separate litigation, on the other hand, would risk confusion, delay and inconsistent results.

Defendants also agree that – as reflected in the proposed order submitted by the Weber plaintiffs – defendants should be excused from answering, moving, or otherwise responding to any of the individual complaints in the above-captioned actions (Weber proposed pretrial order at 7) and that – as reflected in the proposed order submitted by the Weber and Howard plaintiffs – the parties should confer regarding the schedule for the filing of a consolidated amended complaint and for defendants to answer, move, or otherwise respond to the consolidated amended complaint (Weber proposed pretrial order at 7, Howard proposed pretrial order at 4-5).

Defendants take no position on the requests by the Weber, Howard, and Lounsbury plaintiffs for appointment of interim lead plaintiffs or interim lead counsel. We respectfully reserve the right to oppose any motion that relates to class certification, and to take discovery regarding class issues. See, e.g., Wertz v. Lee, 199 F.R.D. 129, 133-34 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (appointing lead plaintiffs and lead counsel, without precluding any party from contesting class certification).

Defendants object, however, to one provision in the proposed orders submitted by each of the Weber and Howard plaintiffs which purports to impose on defendants discovery obligations that are inconsistent with the Federal Rules. These proposed orders seek to require defendants to produce, within 14 days of the entry of the proposed order, a substantial volume of documents, including materials that describe the operation, administration, and management of the plan; identify the plan fiduciaries and describe the scope of their fiduciary duties; and constitute board or committee minutes and resolutions. (See Weber proposed pretrial order at 6-7; Howard proposed pretrial order at 4-5.)

These provisions are inconsistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(d), under which discovery is stayed pending the parties' Rule 26(f) conference. Moreover, as the consolidation papers state, certain plaintiffs have exercised their right under ERISA § 104(b) to seek documents related to the ERISA plan at issue, and defendants will be producing those materials promptly. Given plaintiffs' ability to obtain those materials, there is no good reason to make an exception to usual and orderly discovery procedures.

We note that various named defendants have not been served with process in certain of the above-captioned actions. This submission is without waiver of any and all defenses, objections or arguments the named defendants may have, including, but not limited to, lack of personal jurisdiction, improper venue, lack or insufficiency of process, or lack or insufficiency of service of process. See, e.g., Arthur Williams, Inc. v. Helbig, No. 00 Civ. 2169, 2001 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 6576, at *7 (S.D.N.Y. May 21, 2001); Howard v. Klynveld Peat Marwick Goerdeler, 977 F. Supp. 654, 659-60 (S.D.N.Y. 1997).

Finally, defendants note that plaintiff in Lounsbury includes in his motion papers a tendentious statement of the case, and allegations concerning the identity of plan fiduciaries. Given the early stage of this litigation, we do not address those allegations, other than to note our disagreement with them.
